Hi everyone! Happy Friday!

Thanks for being the great connector, Molly. Yes, Feb 17 at 10 am works for The Bay Foundation folks.

Checked out the 2 Urban Waters programs. I see potential in the EPA Small Grant program and this could be a cool joint venture for TBF and ReThink Disposables. We could use support for our watershed revitalization work in South LA. Let's discuss this on the 17th! TBF has also made some updates to our 2018 work plan, which includes ReThink Disposables. I'll explain in more detail when we chat.

The 5 star program does not include Santa Monica Bay Watershed as one of the 19 designated areas...so not sure about this one.

Anyways, looking forward to the 17th.

Hey all,

It was great speaking with you all a few weeks ago. I wanted to get our next call scheduled asap- How is Feb 17th 10am?

As promised, here are some links to more information on Urban Waters Program and National Estuary Program (NEP)

There are actually 2 Urban Waters programs 1- Small Grants program - run by EPA and 2 Urban Waters Federal Partnership- epa funds along with other various entities (distributed thru NFWF and currently open)

EPA Urban Waters <https://www.epa.gov/urbanwaters>

Small grants program - about 3 million per year, about 50k per grant

Eligibility Area https://geoplatform3.epa.gov/UW_SmallGrantsMap/index.html

Urban Waters Federal Partnership is proud to sponsor the Five Star and Urban Waters Restoration Grant Program <https://www.epa.gov/urbanwaterspartners/five-star-and-urban-waters-restoration-grant-program-2017>

19 designated areas - <https://www.epa.gov/urbanwaterspartners/19-designated-urban-waters-locations>

NEP program overview <https://www.epa.gov/nep/overview-national-estuary-program>

Links to homepages of all 28 NEPs <https://www.epa.gov/nep/local-estuary-programs>
